

Miami-Dade County Expressway Authority Unsolicited Public-Private Partnership Proposals

Miami-Dade County Expressway Authority (“MDX”) finds that there is a public need for timely and cost-effective acquisition, design, construction, improvement, renovation, expansion, equipping, maintenance, operation, implementation, or installation of projects serving a public purpose, including transportation facilities and infrastructure, technology infrastructure, roads, highways, bridges, and other public infrastructure and government facilities on the MDX Expressways and within Miami-Dade County. Public-private partnerships have demonstrated that they can meet the needs by improving the schedule for delivery, lowering the cost, and providing other benefits to the public. MDX shall receive, evaluate and enter into public-private partnership agreements for qualified unsolicited projects in accordance with section 255.065, Florida Statutes.

DEFINITIONS

The terms used in this Policy shall be interpreted as defined in section 255.065, Florida Statutes.
