

GMX Votes 5-0 for Torey Alston as Executive Director

South Florida – Yesterday, the Greater Miami Expressway Agency (GMX) voted 5-0 for Torey Alston as the permanent Executive Director of the agency. The GMX governing board convened in a special board meeting to conduct interviews for Executive Director and complete organizational business of the agency.

Pursuant to section 348.0304(4)(b), Florida Statutes, the law requires that, “In the hiring of an executive director of the agency, the governing body of the agency shall conduct a nationwide search in order to identify the most qualified candidate.” The Governing Board launched the Executive Director search process on September 27, 2023, and approved the creation of the Executive Director Search Committee on November 17, 2023.

The search attracted 199 applicants and the process was narrowed to a smaller pool with a recommendation to ultimately interview the top three applicants.

The GMX governing board authorized the head of the Executive Search Committee, Board Member Blanco, to initiate negotiations with Mr. Alston, with assistance from the general counsel and human resources.
